

English

I know what narrative writing is
I can list and describe the features of a narrative
I know the difference between fiction and non-fiction text
I can build a varied and rich vocabulary to describe a character

I can use relative clauses in my writing
I can use paragraphs to describe the characters
I can use paragraphs to describe the setting
I can evaluate and edit my own writing

I can use commas to separate adjectives within an expanded noun phrase

I can create a dialogue between characters using inverted commas
I can write paragraphs that describe the complication/solution of the story
I can evaluate and edit by proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary

I can plan and write a story independently

I can read, analyse and discuss the first two chapters of a story
I can use appropriate word choices to describe the setting
I can use appropriate word choices to describe the lead character

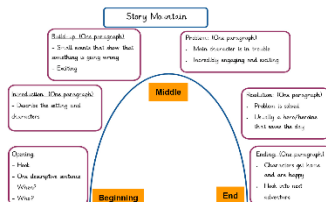

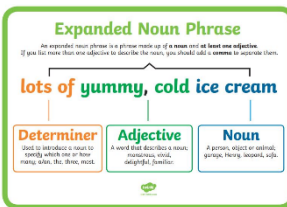

I can express the time, place and cause using conjunctions
I can write the introduction for a story
I can develop cohesion within a paragraph
I can vary sentence length to show impact

I can use a range of conjunctions
I can write the build-up and problem of the story
I can develop cohesion within a paragraph
I can learn and apply direct and indirect speech

I can create dialogue between two lead characters
I can use apostrophes to mark plural possessions
I can revise the use of apostrophes to mark plural possessions

Assessment Week

Characters

Year Four Term 1.2

Going Places - 7 Weeks

Into the Forest and The BFG

Science

I can explore solids, liquids and gases
I can explore materials that are more difficult to categorise
I can look at how some materials can change states between a solid, liquid and gas
I understand how to use a thermometer and a stopwatch accurately
I understand negative numbers
I can plan a fair test to investigate whether the temperature of the water affects the time it takes for ice to melt
I can carry out an experiment to investigate whether the temperature of the water affects the time it takes for ice to melt
I understand the water cycle
I can plan an experiment to investigate whether temperature affects the time it takes for water to evaporate
I can carry out an experiment to explore whether temperature affects the rate of evaporation
I can work scientifically to analyse data, make conclusions and evaluate the experiment

Geography

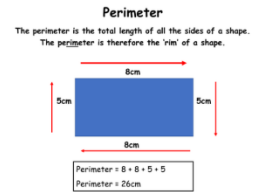

I can list and locate the continents and oceans on the world map
I can use maps, atlases and globes to locate continents, countries and oceans

History

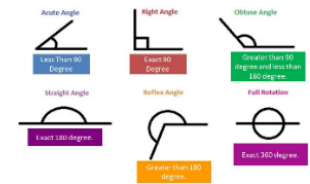

I can learn about the Wright Brothers and their first invention of the aeroplane
I can read and discuss Amelia Earhart's impact on aviation and how it has affected women

Mathematics

I can measure and convert kilometres and metres
I can find equivalent lengths (km and m)
I can find the perimeter on a grid
I can find the perimeter of a rectangle
I can find the perimeter of a rectilinear shapes

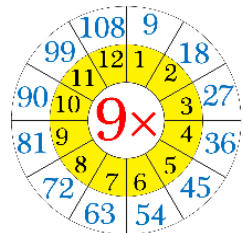

I can find missing lengths in rectilinear shapes
I can calculate the perimeter of rectilinear shapes
I can calculate the perimeter of regular polygons
I can calculate the perimeter of polygons
I can understand angles as turns

I can identify angles
I can compare and order angles
I can name and identify different triangles
I can name and identify different quadrilaterals
I can name and identify different polygons

I can draw and identify the lines of symmetry
I can complete a symmetric figure
I can find multiples of three
I can multiply and divide by 6
I know the 6 times-table and division facts

I can multiply and divide by 9
I know the 9 times-table and division facts
I can revise the 3, 6 and 9 times-tables
I can multiply and divide by 7
I know the 7 times-table and division facts

I know the 11 times-table and division facts
I know the 12 times-table and division facts
I can multiply by zero and one
I can divide a number by one and itself
I can multiply three numbers

Art/DT

I can draw two lead characters from a story
I can design and build an airplane (home project)

Handwriting

ie / ed / ake / W / ff / he